

Imagery on screen: An oak statue of a tall male figure in a shroud which represents the 'Keeper of the Wood' stands on a woodland path. There are views of the wood which continue through the video.

Male narrator: I am a calendar, watch the seasons grow,

Warmed by summer sun, blanketed in snow.

I am a wardrobe full of things to wear,

Woven mossy blankets, woolly underwear.

I am a market full of tasty grub,

Caterpillar sandwiches, desiccated slug.

I am a mansion, fit for popstar folk,

Bunches of ash keys, wall to wall oak.

I am a classroom, open to the skies.

History surrounds me, imagination flies,

Woodland interface, nature's open book,

Ancient hub of knowledge, welcome to the wood."

Text on screen: Visit Tremain's Wood, Brackla, Bridgend. CF31.

Look out for: pipistrelle bat, nut hatch, wood mouse, bluebell.
